GOD LOVES US THAT MUCH

Dear Members of St. Paul's and Trinity,

This month we celebrate Ash Wednesday and begin the 40-day spiritual journey of Lent. Lent is a six-week season leading up to Easter Sunday that offers Christians an opportunity to focus on repentance and spiritual growth. Some Christians especially focus on prayer, Bible study, or meditation.

As a congregation, we will spend time in worship, studying the events just before and up to the crucifixion, when Jesus paid the price for our sins which sets us free from sin, death and the power of the devil. God's love for us is amazing as Jesus, who is God from eternity, left it all to become the lowest of Servants that we might become the children of God. Philippians 2:6–8 says, Who, though He was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied Himself, by taking the form of a Servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, He humbled Himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. How does that make you feel to know that God loves you that much?

Ash Wednesday worship services will be February 18th, at 5 p.m. at Trinity, and at 7 p.m. at St. Paul's. Ash Wednesday is especially a time to repent and think of all Jesus did to save us from our sins. In the weeks to follow, the congregations will take turns hosting the Wednesday Lenten worship services each at 7 p.m.

I look forward to beginning the journey of Lent with you!

All of this leads up to the greatest event in the history of the world, the resurrection of Jesus which we will celebrate April 5th.

WORD FROM THE CENTER

Simple. Powerful. Straight Talk for Your Heart and Soul

The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, “Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!” (John 1:29).

Today’s verse drops us right into the opening scene of Jesus’ public ministry. Before Jesus stepped onto the stage, God sent John the Baptist ahead of Him — a forerunner — to wake up hearts, clear away confusion, and prepare people to receive the Messiah. From the very beginning, John wasn’t shy. He didn’t leave room for guesswork. When Jesus walked toward him, John declared loud and clear: “Look! The Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!”

There it is. No spiritual fog. No vague platitude. No “be your best self” slogan.

Just Jesus — God’s answer to humanity’s deepest need.

So why, then, do people insist that Christianity is like every other religion? So many people reduce the Bible’s message to slogans like, “Be good.” “Try harder.” “Love people.” However, the heartbeat of Scripture is not what we do at all, but what God has done for us in Jesus Christ!

Maybe it’s discomfort with needing forgiveness.

Maybe it’s the belief that ancient rules can’t possibly apply to modern lives.

Or maybe it’s the age-old lie that this time our generation will finally fix the world through our own brilliance, technology, or progress. But every culture before us tried that too. And every one discovered the same truth: without God, human strength collapses.

John’s call still thunders across the centuries: “Look!”

Look to Jesus.

Look to the Lamb.

Look to the One who takes away the sin of the world.

Look anywhere else and you will end up disappointed, exhausted, and empty.

But look to Him and you will receive hope, forgiveness, and life.

Let me get personal for a moment. One of my favorite TV shows is Blue Bloods. It’s got heart, grit, family loyalty, and moral conviction — everything you’d want in a good law-and-order drama. And I love how the show treats faith with respect. Those Sunday dinner prayers? Beautiful.

But here’s the thing: after all the episodes, all the seasons, and all the family prayers, I’ve never once heard the core of the Christian message spoken plainly. They never get to “Trust in Jesus Christ, who takes away the sin of the world.”

And don’t tell me tough cops don’t need to hear that. I’ve sat with officers. I’ve listened to them. I’ve prayed with them. Their work can place them in impossible situations. Sometimes they carry guilt even when they did the right thing. Sometimes they carry wounds they can’t talk about. Sometimes they carry memories that won’t go away.

There is only One who can lift that burden, cleanse that conscience, and bring peace to a weary heart:

- The Lamb of God.
- Real sins. Real Savior. Real cross. Real resurrection. Real hope.

And you can count on Him because He is faithful, trustworthy, and true.

So as you step into today — your meetings, your errands, your work, your worries — keep it simple: Jesus came into this world to save sinners.

That means us.

That means now.

And that means there is grace, purpose, and power available to live boldly today.

Look to Him.

Lean on Him.

Trust Him.

Then walk forward with confidence because the Lamb of God goes with you.

PRAYER: Dear Lord Jesus, help me to keep it simple and never forget who You are in my life. I need a savior and in You, I have one. Give me strength to live in that truth in all I do. AMEN

Rev. Dr. Gregory Seltz

What An Opportunity!

Devotion for Lent

Serve the LORD with gladness! (Psalm 100:2a)

Have you had a unique opportunity in your life? Perhaps you have been blessed to attend college, to advance in your job, to travel to a special part of the world on a mission trip, or to use your skills and passion to help people in your community. Opportunity is defined as “a favorable juncture of circumstances,” “an occasion or situation which makes it possible to do something, or the possibility of doing something” (Cambridge English Dictionary and Miriam-Webster.com Dictionary 2018).

Whatever opportunities you have enjoyed, today there is an opportunity for each of us. That opportunity or “possibility of doing something” is Lent! Lent is an opportunity. Lent is a favorable juncture of time where we are given the gift of 40 days to prepare for Easter. This opportunity begins on Ash Wednesday. For 40 weekdays, we pause, remember, and contemplate what God has done and continues to do for us. So, what might be your “opportunity” this Lenten season?

Lent may mean attending Lenten services where we focus on repentance. When we fully repent, God graciously forgives our sins and releases us from the guilt and sorrow our sins cause us. Knowing God forgives our sins for Jesus’ sake, we are filled with joy and thanksgiving that leads us to abundant praise and worship for our great God.

Lent may also mean giving up something. Fasting is one such way to do this. In Matthew 6:16–18, Jesus talks about the proper way to fast. For some, giving up a type of food or other item for the Lenten season is a daily and constant reminder for them of Jesus’ total sacrifice for us when He gave up His life on the cross to rescue us from sin and eternal death.

But instead of giving up something for Lent, this season can also be an opportunity for each of us to also consider what we can add to our lives that is good. A good addition might be to write notes (40 of them for each day in the Lenten season) to thank people in your life or tell them you are thinking of them and praying for them that day. Another good addition might mean reading a different psalm each day of Lent as your daily prayer. The Lenten season can be an opportunity to rise and shine 15 minutes early and spend the time in God’s presence or even give up a 30-minute television show to add more time in His Word. Or motivated by Christ’s own acts of kindness and love, you might wish to do an act of kindness for others.

Another something we can add during Lent might be to find items in your home, maybe even 40 of them, to give to a service organization in your community that can give them to help those in need. Or perhaps you could encourage members of your family to share some “out of the normal” nice things with one another. For example, instead of just saying “Thank you” or “Good job,” take the opportunity to tell your spouse, “I love how you help with the kids.” Or tell your kids, “I love how you work hard on your homework,” or “I love how you make others feel they are special.”

The Lenten season can be a new opportunity for you, “an occasion to do something” memorable and meaningful. Whether you choose to give up something or choose to add something good, spend time in prayer and thanksgiving as the joyous celebration of Jesus’ resurrection approaches. Ask the Holy Spirit to use your Lenten “opportunity” to prepare your heart for Easter in a way that is meaningful and that deepens your relationship with God. Enjoy your opportunity this Lenten season!

Prayer: Dear God, may we always, and in every opportunity, be Your willing servants. In Jesus’ name. Amen.
